Experience the soothing sounds of silence and rushing streams in a magical sanctuary of the Bavarian Alps just 60 miles south of Munich and a short drive from Garmisch-Partenkirchen. A feeling of peace and belonging in spacious rooms and suites with breathtaking views. A liberating sense of calm and serenity in six spas and pools for adults and families. Taijiquan and Yoga retreats with exceptional teachers. New energy from hiking and mountainbiking in pristine nature. Edutainment workshops and soccer camps for kids and teens. Outstanding food and service in restaurants for cosmopolitans. A phenomenal bookstore and concerts by the great artists on the pulse of our time.
FESTIVALS

8 – 13 September
A Week with Jan Vogler
Celebrated cellist Jan Vogler curates his own music week in Schloss Elmau, during which, among other things, he explores Beethoven’s cello sonatas with five up-and-coming pianists in celebration of Beethoven Year.
with Jan Vogler, Tiffany Peas, Lauren Zhang, Jono Ekelund et al.

19 – 24 October
Book Fair Days
The critics of the (Frankfurt) Book Fair Trio present this fall’s most important literary releases at Schloss Elmau.
with Ijoma Mangold, Denis Schack & Insa Wilke.

17 – 22 November
22nd European Jazztival 'Scandinavia'
This year’s jazz festival presents the best-known representatives of the Scandinavian jazz scene.
with the Jan Garbarek Group, Nils Landgren & The Funk Unit, Ryden et al.

22 – 27 November
Japanese Literature Days
Japanese literature is an enigmatic, moving object of fascination. It deals with the finiteness of being in the face of beauty and love. Cherry blossoms, venerated and loved, are a symbol of the inevitable: that something exists, but does not persist, and passes away.
with Axel Milberg, Hubert Winkels et al.

26 November – 6 December
12th Verbier Festival @ Schloss Elmau
Martin T:son Engstroem, Director of the Verbier Festival, presents outstanding young artists and great musical personages.
with Mao Fujita, Alexandre Kantorow, Mikhail Pletnev, Nicolas Altstaedt, Gábor Takács-Nagy, Verbier Festival Chamber Orchestra et al.

10 – 17 January 2021
67th Chamber Music Week
Featuring numerous concerts in which excellent musicians and ensembles perform the whole spectrum of chamber music.
with Anna Sofie von Otter, Lucas & Arthur James, Pavel Haas Quartet, David Orlowsky, Andrè Schuen et al.
